“Learning and growing together to be the best that we can be”

23rd January 2024

Ofsted Report, 28th-29th November 2023

Dear Parents and carers,

I am pleased to now be able to share the school’s Ofsted report with you all, following the recent school inspection on 28th and 29th November. We are delighted that the school now has an overall ‘good’ judgement, with two ‘outstanding’ judgements given for our Early Years provision and pupils ‘personal development’. We are thrilled that the inspectors have recognised the strength of our curriculum, the quality of support for pupils with SEND and the high expectations of pupil’s behaviour and attitudes to learning. Whilst none of our work is done to prove anything to Ofsted, we are glad that the hard work and commitment to making All Saints a high quality teaching and learning environment has been recognised, and the consistent vision and values we promote have supported all to ‘be the best that they can be’.

It feels wrong to be celebrating at such a difficult time in school, following the sad passing of Ms Balmer last week, and it would be wrong for me to share this with you without recognising that. However, I know that Ms Balmer was proud of these judgements, and her commitment to the school and our pupils undoubtedly contributed to the positive outcomes - I am sure she would want to celebrate with you all if she was able to. She played a significant part in supporting both the delivery of quality phonics and reading sessions, as well as showing exceptional skills in supporting vulnerable pupils and pupils with SEND.

We welcome your comments and questions in relation to this report, and look forward to working with you as we continue our journey of improvement.

Yours sincerely,

K. O’Grady
